

Internet Privacy

LSB Community Bank provides information on the Internet as a benefit in furtherance of the bank's customer services. The bank's commitment to safeguard your privacy extends to the Internet. While browsing our website, we do not collect any personally identifiable information unless you voluntarily and knowingly emailed us this information. We urge our customers not to send emails with personally identifiable information. It is the bank's policy not to send or request sensitive information via email. If you email us personally identifiable information, it will only be used internally and for the purpose for which it was provided.

Our internet service provider may collect general information on our behalf from portal visitors simply for security and statistical purposes. The information collected for these purposes may include internet address of referral site, date and time of access, name and version of web browser, internet service provider, internet protocol address, and pages visited in our site.

All information provided in official LSB Community Bank web sites are provided for information purposes only and does not constitute a legal contract between the bank and any person or entity unless otherwise specified. Information on official bank web sites is subject to change without prior notice at the bank's discretion. Although every reasonable effort is made to present current and accurate information, LSB Community Bank makes no guarantees of any kind.

Any links to external web sites and/or non-bank information provided on bank pages or returned from bank web search engines are provided as a courtesy. They should not be construed as an endorsement by the bank of the content or views of the linked materials. The bank does not exert editorial control over materials posted or emailed by any customer to any other person.

Cookies are small files stored on a computer. Cookies can be disruptive, such as those left on a computer by advertisers (causing pop-up ads) after a particular web site is visited or can be helpful, such as a cookie that remembers customer preferences. Information stored by cookies may be retrieved when a web site is revisited. Cookies and similar files that we place on your computer do not contain any personal information unless encrypted, and we never use cookies or other files to track your use of other web sites. LSB Community Bank uses cookies and other technologies to display information more effectively to you and to gather data about the usage of our website. You may disable or delete cookies and similar files by following your browser's instructions.

LSB Community Bank promotes internet safety for children. We do not knowingly market to or solicit information from children under 13 without parent consent. The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act protects children under the age of 13 from the online collection of personal information. Learn more about COPPA on the Federal Trade Commission's Web Site.

